

‘Effective communication in the class. Creating a Classroom to Be Proud Of’

The Effective Classroom Communication Cookbook

Tuesdays & Thursdays February 16th – March 16th

19.30 – 21.30 – Online Training

This course 143,- € for colegiados
Non-colegiados – 213,-€

PROGRAMA

Course Objectives

- To provide teachers with innovative practical strategies and tools to develop more effective classroom communication
- To improve teachers' ability to design a positive and successful learning environment
- To support teachers in confronting the challenges they face in their day to day work
- To help teachers communicate more successfully in other educational contexts

Course Content

- How to create a positive optimal environment to develop lasting and long-term learning
- How to foment collaboration and promote respect and acceptance in the classroom
- How to awake curiosity and heighten motivation in your learners
- How to monitor and react effectively to what is happening in the classroom, providing feedback & creating forward momentum
- How to manage resistance to learning, deal with tense situations, conflict and unexpected scenarios in the classroom
- How to communicate more effectively and improve your skills in using language to influence positively on teaching practice.
- How to exploit strategies and resources to deal with mixed ability groups, challenge stronger learners and help those who need more support
- How to help learners consolidate their learning and effective strategies to get learners to show what they have learned
- How to deal with the concerns of parents and carers
- How to achieve equilibrium between life at work and life at home